STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The original portion of Belmont was erected around 1761 by John Dixon of Williamsburg. In 1825 it was purchased by Joseph Ficklin of Stafford County, who enlarged the central portion of the dwelling and added a wing. Ownership of Belmont remained with the Ficklin family until the house was purchased by Gari Melchers the famous American artist.

The imposing frame structure, with its beautiful grounds and commanding position, serves as an architectural focal point for the historic community of Falmouth. Also, Belmont's association with Gari Melchers has made the house an important cultural landmark.
