

U. S. Capitol Commission ;

RE: Replacement for Lee statue

Since no individual can be perfect, create a human figure with its arms outstretched and head tilted back to symbolize all who have persevered over oppression and found freedom and prosperity. So many needy causes exist, and updating a statue every hundred years or so is foolhardy.

Sincerely,
Beverly H. Terrell

10.20.2020